NOW, September 14, 1987, this matter comes on for trial as assigned. Plaintiff is represented by Jeff Giles and debtors-defendants by John Clemens. The court is advised the parties have reached agreement as to the entry of judgment, subject to the court's approval and the proposed terms thereof are fully disclosed to the court, and the court finds them to be fair and acceptable and ratifies them hereby.

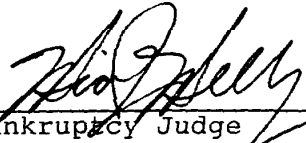

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED judgment be entered in favor of plaintiff, and against the debtors-defendants, Clarence Michael Sanderson and Lynette Joyce Sanderson, and each of them, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. In the sum of $1,550.00 together with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum, payable over thirty (30) months at the rate of $61.72 monthly, first payment due October 1, 1987, and each subsequent payment due on or before the first of each succeeding month, last payment due on March 1, 1990.

2. The debts to plaintiff of the defendants are declared to be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523 (a) (2) because of their false pretenses, false representation or actual fraud in obtaining money, together with their use of a financial statement in writing that was materially false respecting their financial condition upon which plaintiff relied and which was published by the defendants with the intent to deceive.

3. The costs of this action are taxed to defendants.
